- Business Eric – attending meeting of the Mississippi Mills Liason Committee and gave some information on the Committee to the club members. The original contact came via email from Al Jones. The liason committee acts as a hub for local service organizations for local individuals who have needs they cannot afford for themselves or that no other service provides. This committee has no budget but will vet requests and then seek out assistance if appropriate. The committee is hoping to bring more organizations on to the committee. Eric expressed it would be a good chance to have more presence in Mississippi Mills, and volunteered to attend another meeting.

Compost – Eric - brief explanation of our compost Sat/Sun May 4,5, with CP soccer club. Location not yet confirmed, if not at Old Barracks location then Volunder Thorbjorsson has a spot we can use to bag and sell the compost.

Eric to keep in contact with US Rotary Club in regard to Casita Copan project and where our support might best be utilized.

Ernie announced there would be a local band for the casino night to play background music
