Acknowledgement:

We acknowledge that the land on which we live and are meeting tonight is the traditional unceded territory of the Algonquin and Anishinabe People who have lived on this land since time immemorial.

3. Members and guests enjoyed a potluck dinner contributed by attending members.

4. Presentation by Outgoing President. Carman summarized the accomplishments of the Club over the past few years. He thanked the members of the “small but mighty” club for all their hard work and contributions to making these happen.

5. Presidential Transfer. Carman passed the Club gavel to Marion and presented her with a new Rotary President pin.

6. Remarks from Incoming President. Marion acknowledged the hard work of all members and looked forward to our continuing contributions.

7. Presentation to CPGHA . Carman and Marion presented a ceremonial cheque for $2100 to Steve Scott for the work of his young lady hockey players at our recent compost sale. Steve thanked us and said how his players enjoyed the opportunity to work with a community group.

8. Adjournment .Dave motioned to adjourn at 7:45pm.

9. Next Meeting. Tuesday June 27 at 6pm at The Thirsty Moose.
